SUPERVISORY PATENT EXAMINER

SUPPLEMENTAL ACTIONAllowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-36 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant's newly amended claims employ a data compression module configured to apply compression on the backbone connection or to apply different compression schemes on individual ones of the plurality of connections. Applicant's remarks of 6/28/06 expressly defined the usage of multiple compression schemes as found on page 11 of Applicant's remarks, 06/28/06, and in Applicant's specification, paragraph [50], herein quoted below.

The PEP 200 may optionally include a data compression kernel 290 for compressing TCP data and an encryption kernel 292 for encrypting TCP data. Data compression increases the amount of data that can be carried across the backbone connection. Different compression algorithms can be supported by the data compression kernel 290 and more than one type of compression can be supported at the same time. The data compression kernel 290 may optionally apply compression on a per TCP connection basis, before the TCP data of multiple TCP connections is multiplexed onto the backbone connection or on a per backbone connection basis, after the TCP data of multiple TCP connections has been multiplexed onto the backbone connection. Which option is used is dynamically determined based on user configured rules and the specific compression algorithms being used. Exemplary data compression algorithms are disclosed in U.S. Patent No. 5,973,630, 5,995,976, the entire contents of which are hereby incorporated by reference. The encryption kernel 292 encrypts the TCP data for secure transmission across the backbone link 130. Encryption may be performed by any conventional technique. It is also understood that the compression spoofer (in the example outlined above, the network gateway 140) includes appropriate kernels for decompression and decryption, both of which may be performed by any conventional technique.

The prior art failed to disclose any usage of the compression techniques employed in U.S. Patents 5,973,630 and 5,995,976, incorporated by reference into the specification, in a multiple compression format on different backbone connections or the single backbone connection as shown in the above cited portion of the specification.

Below are cited pieces of art that are similar to Applicant's invention. None of these pieces of art employ both the protocol spoofing of Applicant's invention and the multiple compression techniques of U.S. Patents 5,973,630 and 5,995,976 on a backbone.

For these reasons, claims 1-36 are allowable.

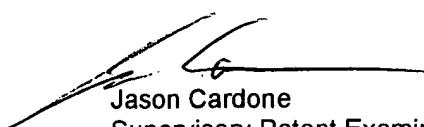

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
